

Webinar: Leading and Motivating Teams Remotely

31 March 2020 | 4PM to 5PM (UAE)

OVERVIEW

With the heightened anxiety and confusion in the spread of Coronavirus (COVID-19) and the increased global impact, it is important that we as individuals and companies respond and adapt accordingly. Join LexisNexis and Changeosity for a webinar where Suzanne Gandy, Co-Founder and Principal of Changeosity, will share her top five tips for:

- Leading and motivating teams remotely
- Leading yourself remotely
- How to practically adopt the following leadership behaviours during these challenging times

During the webinar, we will also look at:

- Participative decision-making, communication and collaboration to respond rather than react
- Challenging assumptions and curiosity in supporting the business to adjust traditional practices to ensure your business remains resilient and future focussed
- Adopting strategic mindset and courage in assessing and prioritising how to minimise the financial impact of the crisis on your business
- Empathy and caring for your employees, customers and stakeholders who are all impacted by the crisis

SPEAKERS

SUZANNE GANDY

Co-Founder & Principal, changeosity

Suzanne's mantra is lead from the front, and she believes that the best answers are always in the room.

Suzanne Gandy is a leadership and organisational culture guru who has led major organisational change in healthcare and government across the Middle East. A former British Army Officer, she completed two operational tours before pursuing an esteemed career in Human Resources. Suzanne is an award winning womens' leader and top graduate of Royal Military Academy Sandhurst. Her expertise in psychology, strategic human resources, and personnel development is simply top class. She holds Master of Strategic Human Resource Management, Bachelor of Psychology and is a Member of Chartered Institute of Personnel Development. Suzanne believes in the power of authentic leadership resulting in teams of people who are much stronger than they think they are. She has maintained her mantra of "lead from the front."
